LEAGUE GOSSIP.

Congratulations to St. Columba's on being the first Club to win the G. and D.C. Badminton League.

Miss M. Shearer and Mr. A. Wishart Swan, of St. Clair Church, are doubles champions of the League. Mrs. Simpson and Mr. R. Mackay (St. Enoch's), the runners-up, were defeated in the deciding game by one point.

The Championships were played off in St. Enoch's Hogg. Church Halls.

St. Clair Church (home) v. Alexandra Par. was the only drawn game of the season.

Alexandra Par. missed a great chance of winning the League by losing their last home game to St. Columba's.

St. Clair Church was the only Club to defeat the League winners.

Visiting Clubs are advised to mark Henderson Mem. as dangerous.

St. Columba's and St. Clair Church were undefeated at home.

Had games been the deciding factor the Parade might have——. Well, well.

The Presentation Social held in Miss Buick's Tea Room was voted a great success, and we look for the support of all Clubs at our next venture.

To all Clubs we would say, remember that in Badminton punctuality is a virtue.

The League Gossip, results of matches and League Tables appear in the Glasgow "Daily Record" fortnightly, commencing 20th October, and the Glasgow "Evening News," commencing 21st October.

All Club Secretaries are requested to post result of matches same evening as played to the League Secretary.

We look forward to having the support of all Clubs at the individual championships which will be held during November and February.

Times of matches can be altered by mutual agreement between the Clubs.

League fixtures can only be altered with the sanction of the League Secretary.
