League Gossip.

Congratulations to St. Columba's Episcopal and Wellfield. St. Columba's on winning the First Division Championship for the second time, and Wellfield on being the first club to win the Second Division Championship.

Hard luck St. Enoch's! The First Division's loss is the Second Division's gain.

The pace set by the League winners was just rather hot for Alexandra Parade and Duntocher.

The Individual Championships revealed a very high standard of play. Some of our players are fit for any company. The winners are given on another page.

We admire the fighting spirit of St. Stephen's and wish them better luck in the ensuing season.

Our Inter-League game with "Mulguy" resulted in a good win for the G. and D. C. Badminton League. We hope to make this an annual event.

We take this opportunity of thanking our players for their splendid performance on that occasion.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. J. A. Martin has accepted our invitation to become Honorary President of our League.

We wish our clubs every success in the season now starting, and would reiterate our par. of previous seasons. "In Badminton, punctuality is a virtue."

We regret the withdrawal of Henderson Memorial and Partick East, and hope to welcome them back again at an early date.

All Club Secretaries are requested to post result of matches same evening as played to the League Secretary.

We look forward to having the support of all Clubs at the individual Championships. The Ladies and Gent's Doubles will be held in the Hotspur Street Drill Hall, N.W., on Wednesday and Friday, 16th and 18th Nov. 1932. Entries close 5th Nov, 1932. and Mixed Doubles, Ladies and Gent's Singles during February.

Times of Matches can be altered by mutual agreement between the Clubs.

League Fixtures can only be altered with the sanction of the League Secretary.

"Do you know"

St. Columba are undefeated at home for the past two seasons.

St. David's was the only Club to take a point from them last season

St. David's only lost one out of their last seven matches and that to Maryhill Old Parish.

St. Margaret's won seven out of their last eight matches.

Duntocher was the only Club to defeat the 2nd Division Champions.

Alexandra Parade were runners-up for the second time. Next year—— ?

The result of the "Mulguy" match was—

G. & D. C. B. L.	8	Rubbers	16	Games
"Mulguy"	0	„	5	„

This match was not so one-sided as the score would suggest and it would cause no surprise to those who witnessed it, if our "Mulguy" friends were to come out on top when we entertain them some time about December.

Jack M'Crae was our skipper for the day and maintained his undefeated record in Singles play.

Willie Wilson, who received a nasty knee injury at "Mulguy" is happily quite recovered and will be to the fore again this season.

Another Wellfield record! Robert Topping collected three prizes last year, League winners, Mixed Doubles, and runners-up in Gent.'s Singles.

We had 108 registered players in Season 1930-31, and last year we had 244.

Results of matches and League Tables will be published in the Daily Express every Wednesday, commencing 19th October.
